DIRECTOR'S NOTES

I vividly remember the phone call that I received twelve years ago asking me if I was interested in directing Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. I was so very excited, but I was also saddened as I thought of my hectic school and family schedules. I've always loved this quirky story of Joseph with the eclectic music yet powerful story. I reluctantly said, "No." Later that evening I told my husband of the phone call, and he told me that "I could do anything that I put my mind to." With that encouragement I put my name into the hat and was chosen to direct Joseph.

The show twelve years ago was filled with great talent, and I am excited to bring this show back to the Egyptian Theater. Is there a better place to tell the story of Joseph and his travels from Canaan to Egypt? The beauty of this theater is the perfect background for our story of the ultimate betrayal and the ultimate forgiveness. This cast has worked tirelessly during this difficult winter of snow and cold; there are many nights when it would have been easier to stay home, but they persevered to bring you a show that is filled with endless energy, beautiful voices and wonderful acting.

I have had an amazing Production Team. Bringing a show to the Egyptian Theater is not an easy task, and they have had to work extremely hard to make this all happen. Their dedication has been inspiring. Many of them have spent as many hours working on this show as the actors have spent in rehearsal. However, they do not receive the applause that the actors will receive when the final curtain is lowered. Take a minute to look at the Production Team names and thank a member for his/her hard work. They deserve the accolades.

Finally, to you, the audience, I am so very happy you are here to enjoy your local community theater. We have a passionate and talented group of people who live to entertain. Join us for the rest of our season at the Stage Coach Theater at 126 S. Fifth Street in DeKalb. You can also find information on all of our shows at stagecoaches.com. We hope to see you again!

Greg Anderson (Butler) has been a member of Stage Coach Players (SCP) since 1991. He has been around long enough that he is repeating roles—having played the butler when we did Joseph in 2002. Greg is pleased to be back as the butler and is grateful to Jan and Judy for the opportunity.
